

Court Orders An Upward Review Of Judges Salaries - Politics - Nigeria posted by politicoNG

CJN to now receive N10m monthly, Appeal Court President N9m, High Courts CJ, N8m

A National Industrial Court has ordered the Federal Government to immediately carry out an upward review of the salaries and allowances of the judicial officers. Justice Osatohammwen Obaseki-Osaghae who issued the order held that the current salaries and allowances of judicial officers in the country is not only abysmally low but embarrassing.

Delivering judgment in a suit instituted against the Federal Government by a Senior Advocate of Nigeria, Chief Sebastine Hon, Justice Obaseki-Osaghae ordered the Federal Government to commence a monthly payment of N10 million to the Chief Justice of Nigeria (CJN), N9 million to other justices of the apex court, President of Court of Appeal, N9 million while other justices of the appellate court N8 million, Chief Judges of both Federal and States High Courts N8 million while judges of the Federal and States High Courts N7 million.

The judge held that the refusal of the government to review the judicial officers salaries and allowances for 14 years was unconstitutional, unlawful and should be compelled to do the needful.

Justice Obaseki-Osaghae, lamented that it is unfortunate that justices and judges who are ministers in the temple of Justice have become victims of injustice in the country.

When will the Court increase for lecturers, civil servants & co?

When they bring their own case now, you will use one technical term and strike off the case.

Well-done.

A very funny country 🤔🤔🤔🤔

The judge want only judges to enjoy salary increase while teachers and other workers should labour to death 🤔

MANNABBQGRILLS

If that is gonna make dem do their jobs and give swift judgment on serious crimes after all reasonable doubts have been fulfilled,
A welcome development.

In Saner clime, the murderer cum kidnapper called Evans, all the arrested evil Boko Haram members and ipob cannibalistic bastarf called cownu and all hardened criminal should have been sentenced to whatever punishment their crimes carry.

A better and peaceful nation is all we want.

We Rise.

Good. The judiciary is the third arm of government. If the executive and Senate use their own hands to fix their salary I think it will be fair for judicial officers to pay themselves what they think their job is worth.

The matter get as e be.

Who would expect the judge to pass a sentence for his own salary not to be increased?

Does conflicts of interest not work here?

Is it only judges? What about other civil servants that are been underpaid like the teachers, police, those in in our local government council etc..

Cut down the allowances of our senators, house of reps members and that of national assembly who receive high pay for doing nothing and channel the funds into the right places...

BTW

This is four bedroom residential accommodation designed by asomarchitectng..

Daddy from now on be giving me 100k for allowance instead of the 5k youâ€™re sending

All these judges sef

And non of them said anything about ASUU and the poor students suffering unnecessarily trauma just for being a poor Nigerian

God dey sha

benbarikui

Have they pass judgement that employment should be created?

This country everybody is self centered

SMARTMOTORS

And to do concrete job is still N700 per bag....na only poor man suffering way no dey put money for this country... As dem dey increase judges money make the judges also increase the labourers, drivers, gateman, Gardners money!

Ibechris2

U cant be a judge in ur own matter...

This is absolutely needless and indeed, null and void.
